

Humanities Majors in Illinois: What They Earn & What They Do

There are many ways of understanding the value of a college education in the humanities. Drawing on American Community Survey data, this profile explores humanities majors' career outcomes: what they do for work, how much they earn, and how they compare to graduates from other fields.

226,477 humanities majors reside in Illinois and work full-time.

They represent 5% of the state's full-time workers.
